SCHOOL OF MUSIC

CONCERT BANDS

Wind

Orchestra

MUSC229D – 1 Credit

The Wind Orchestra is the premier performing ensemble of the Maryland Band program. This select group of music majors includes the most outstanding instrumentalists at UMD. The Wind Orchestra performs the finest and most challenging works in the wind repertoire, training aspiring musicians to hone their technical skills while striving for the highest standards in artistic performance. Auditions are held the first week of the fall semester.

Wind Ensemble

MUSC229E – 1 Credit

The Wind Ensemble is open to all students with previous band experience. This ensemble brings together students from across campus to perform a variety of traditional band literature while building their technical skills. This ensemble provides an exciting environment to build friendships & hone technical skills through the performance of great band literature. Auditions occur in the first week of classes each semester.

University Band

MUSC229U – 1 Credit

The University Band provides students of all majors to continue their musical experiences in a relaxed collegiate setting. This band rehearses once a week for two hours, allowing students to perform beyond their high school level while exploring other facets of life at college. Auditions are held during the first week of classes each semester.
